CANSO

The background of the page is an aerial photograph of London, showing the River Thames and the city skyline. A large, white, curved swoosh graphic starts from the left edge and curves upwards and to the right, partially obscuring the city view.

AIRSPACE MAGAZINE

airspace is CANSO's magazine for ATM and aviation's key players, and includes perspectives from top managers and thought-leaders, and technical insights from industry experts and partners.

airspace features a dynamic range of content, read in over 100 countries by around 21,500 industry professionals.

Both advertising and advertorial opportunities are available (see airspace advertorials).

AIRSPACE ADVERTORIALS

Advertorials provide the opportunity to position your organisation as an expert in its field by publishing current, relevant information and compelling ideas.

airspace offers one page sponsored content advertorials that will also include your company's logo and contact details. The editor of the issue will provide guidance on the planned content of the relevant issue and advice on what might best complement the issue.

airspace takes care of the editing, proofreading and design of pages, so all you need to contribute is the text, and name of the author along with details. Advert copy deadlines must be respected in order to ensure high-quality results. Logos and any graphs or images should be high-resolution preferably in vector format (SVG, EPS, PDF, AI).

EMAIL ADVERTISING

ATM News is our weekly digital newsletter which is emailed to over 6,300 subscribers from over 100 countries. Based on news from CANSO and CANSO Members, it provides the ATM industry intelligence on key developments and improvements, including; contracts won, projects, technology, programmes and partnership updates. Issued to a broad range of individuals from across the industry, this is the perfect place to raise the profile of your organisation to potential customers and peers.

WEBSITE ADVERTISING

The CANSO website is a top online platform and leading information resource for ATM. From Member and event updates, to the latest policies and safety issues, the website is a constant flow of information with easy to download publications and programmes.

With over 20,000 users per month, the CANSO website is an effective online channel to promote your company. CANSO offers Members digital advertising packages to suit all budgets and encourages you to get in touch to discuss options.

WEBINARS

CANSO offers a number of webinars on a range of topics that allow Members to share expert advice and knowledge to a diverse group of professionals in the aviation industry with content that is informative, stimulating and educational.

CANSO Members are invited to utilise this platform to host their own webinars, offering the opportunity to showcase expertise, educate the market, engage with the industry and grow contact and business leads.

EVENT SPONSORSHIP

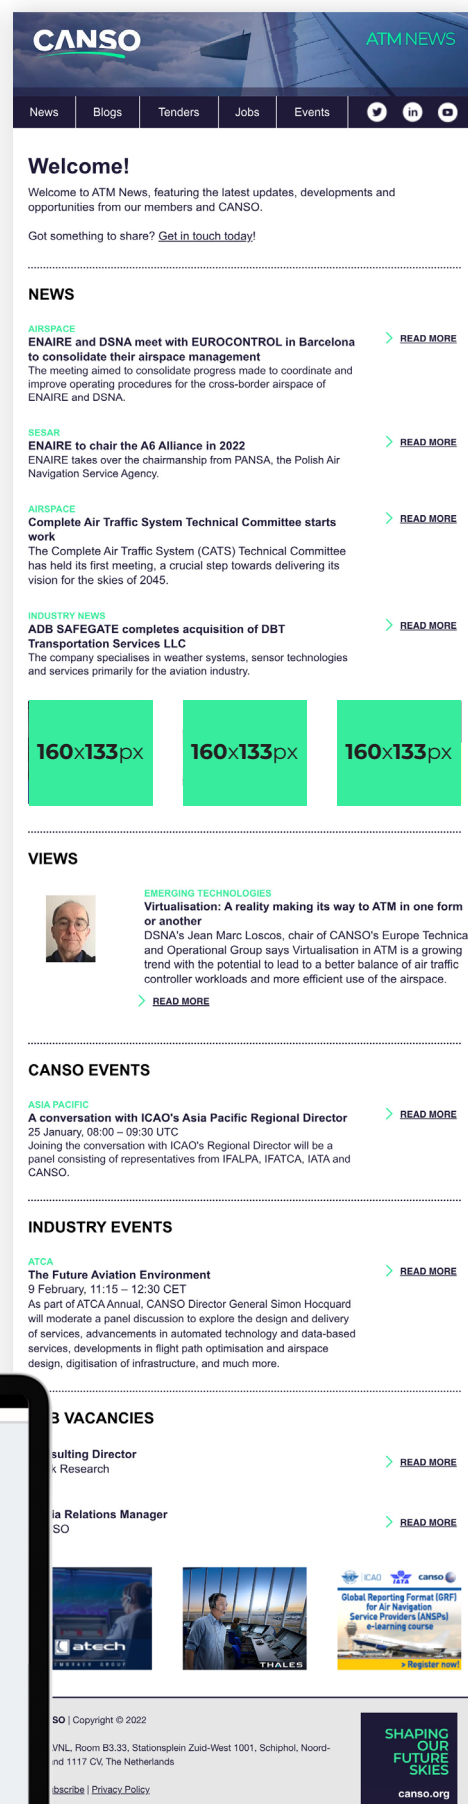

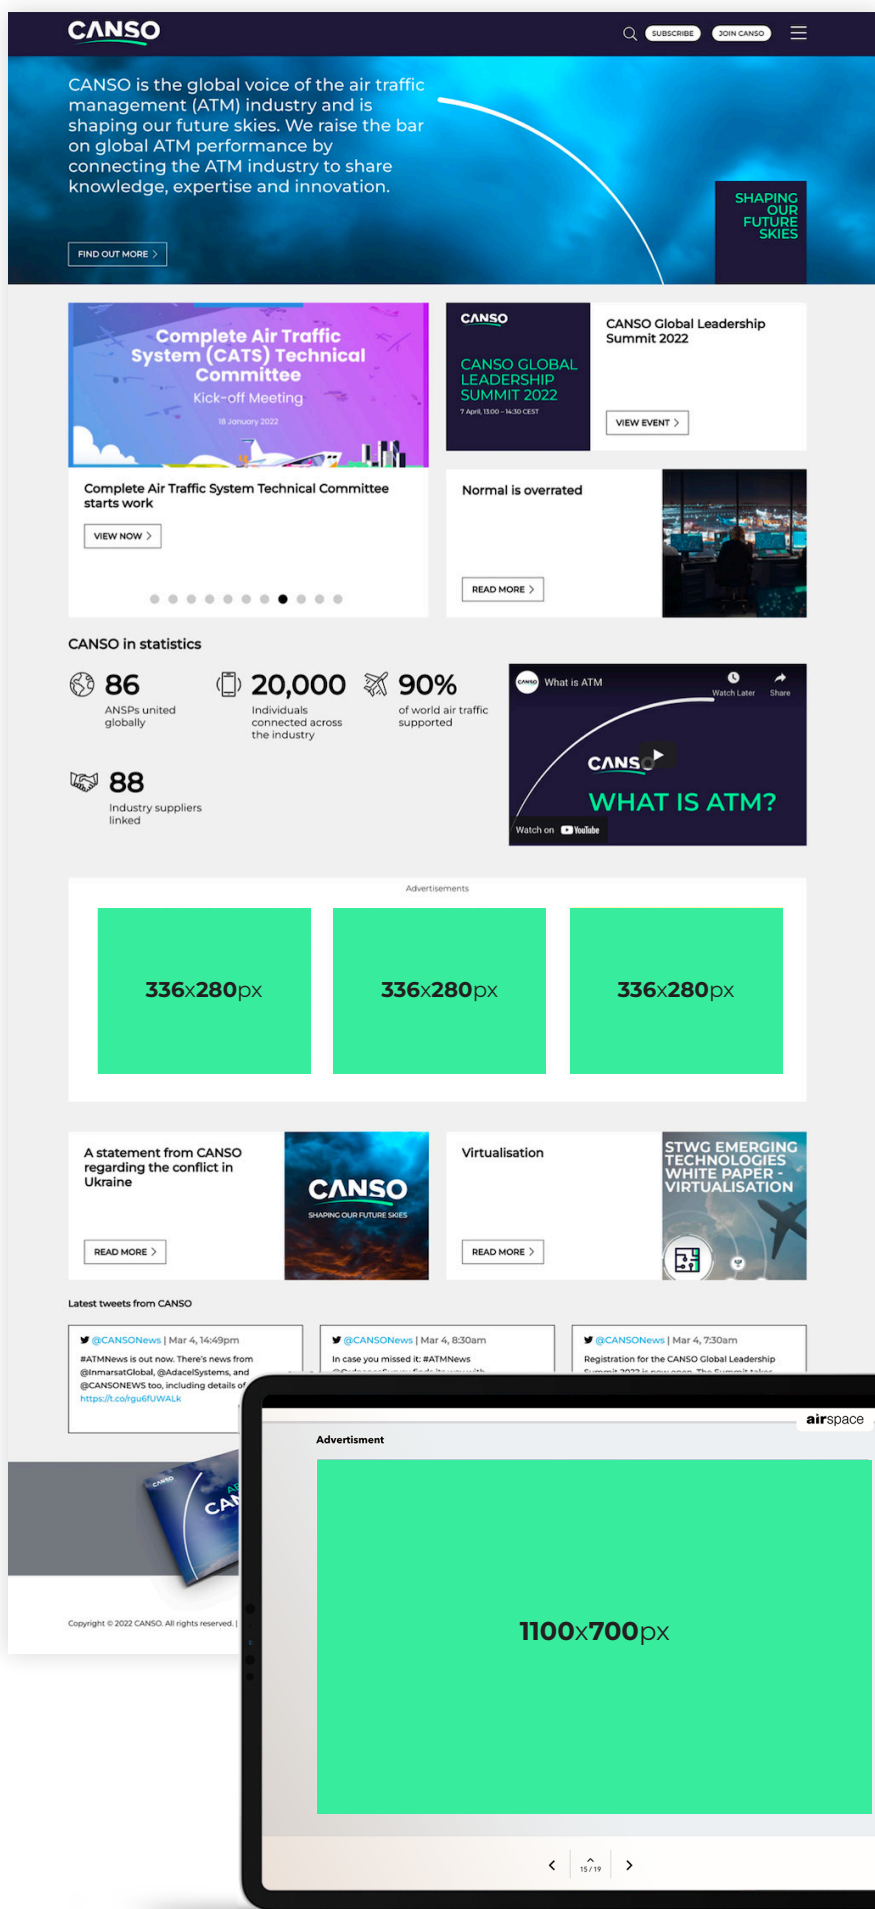

CANSO hosts a number of Face to Face and web-based events through out the year bringing together the world-wide ATM community within regions and globally.

CANSO also partners with ATCA to deliver the world's leading ATM event – World ATM Congress which takes place yearly in Madrid.

These events offer unique opportunities to raise your organisation's profile, extend your global and regional reach and promote products and services through sponsorship or exhibition packages.

Standard packages are offered within this brochure but CANSO is happy to discuss other options that meet your needs.

The full programme of events can be found at canso.org/events.

airspace is an important platform for aviation, showcasing key developments, insight and success stories. It offers space for thought-leaders and innovators to share perspectives, ignite debate and showcase solutions, and for CANSO to explore key issues and the latest industry initiatives. We are really excited to have launched a digital-first publication and look forward to developing this experience for our readers and contributors.

Simon Hocquard,
Director General of CANSO

airspace magazine is a great one-stop-shop to hear from CANSO members about their plans, priorities, and concerns. And now it's in an environmentally friendly, digestible digital format you can read on your phone.

Conor Mullan,
Managing Director of Think Research

airspace is an important air traffic management publication. It provides us with useful insight into the developments and innovation that are affecting the aviation industry. Air navigation service providers and suppliers alike get useful insights into the challenges they face and the opportunities we must embrace.

Don Thoma,
CEO of Aireon

The ATM industry is going through rapid changes, with currently significantly impacted traffic flows combined with continued requests from new entrants constantly requiring innovative solutions. airspace provides essential information and key learnings on how regions around the world are evolving, and what our peers, suppliers and customers are doing to transform operations safely. We are at an important point in ATM, and airspace too is adapting to meet our changing world.

Captain Gilbert Kibe,
Director General of Kenya Civil Aviation Authority

Advertising terms

BILLING

Advertisements will be invoiced prior to the shipment of airspace. Payment should be received within 30 days of the invoice date. If payment is not received, CANSO reserves the right to cancel any advertising, publication orders and event registrations of the advertising company and / or its employees. Responsibility for paying invoices ultimately lies with the advertiser – also for bookings made by the relevant advertising agency.

COPY DELIVERY

It is the advertiser's responsibility to provide the materials before the copy deadline date as specified in the advertising schedule. airspace does not accept responsibility for any loss as a result of misprints in ads that are supplied in any formats other than those specified by airspace.

LIABILITY

The airspace editorial calendar may be changed without prior notice. airspace is free to change all characteristics of the magazine without prior notice to the advertisers. airspace does not accept liability for any loss or damage resulting from such changes in the planned production and/or launch dates of airspace.

NON PUBLICATION

airspace is not responsible for any loss as a result of delay or non-delivery of airspace.

CANCELLATIONS

Cancellations must be received by CANSO in writing. The following charge will apply if the cancellation is received at the CANSO office by the following dates:

More than four weeks before the advertising deadline	No charge
Less than four weeks before the advertising deadline	50% cancellation fee will apply. Alternatively the advertising spot can be reassigned to the next issue at the normal rate.
Less than one week before the advertising deadline	100% fee will apply
