

NAV Portugal as a new Board of Directors

Pedro Ângelo has been appointed the new CEO of NAV Portugal's Board of Directors. Gonçalo Vale and Cristina Lima are also members of this corporate body.

Pedro Ângelo takes over as CEO of NAV Portugal after almost four years as a member of the Board of Directors, having started in that role in March 2020.

Before that, he held positions that show considerable experience as a lawyer and specialist in the sector of Transport Law, particularly Air Law. He also has specific training in business management, having successfully completed the Advanced Management Program for Executives at the Católica Lisbon School of Business and Economics in 2021, and is in the process of completing the MBA at AESE Business School, in collaboration with IESE Business School.

The new CEO of NAV Portugal has also been a member of the Superior Council of the Public Prosecutor's Office since October 2021.

The new member, Cristina Lima, has been an Air Traffic Controller at NAV Portugal since 2004. In 2018 she was appointed Head of the Control Tower at Humberto Delgado Airport and since 2020 she has been Head of Air Traffic for the Lisbon Flight Information Region (responsible for Air Traffic in the area of mainland Portugal extending to the Madeira Archipelago).

Gonçalo Vale has been a Chartered Accountant since 2014 and has held various auditing positions in the Deloitte professional services network, working with national and multinational listed entities in different areas of activity.

The appointment order was published in the Diário da República on December 12, 2023.
